

CONFERENCE: TOURING IN SWITZERLAND

OPPORTUNITIES FOR EMERGING ARTISTS FROM AFRICA, ASIA, LATIN AMERICA & EASTERN EUROPE

FRIDAY 26 OCT CONFERENCE
16:30 – 17:15 ROOM 2

The Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation supports efforts to facilitate access to the Swiss music market for artists from developing countries, in line with the UNESCO Convention on the Protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions. The SüdKulturFonds funding programme entitled «Touring in Switzerland for emerging artists» is aimed at agencies and tour managers who wish to bring upcoming artists from the Global South to Switzerland. The programme pays for international travel and subsistence expenses. The panel will present the conditions for a SüdKulturFonds grant, provide insight into the club and festival scene in Switzerland and discuss the prerequisites for the successful organisation of a tour.

Mario Batkovic is a composer, represented for film and game scores by Soundtrack Music Associates (Los Angeles). He is signed to Invada Records (UK) as a solo accordion artist, a label founded by Geoff Barrow (Portishead). His debut solo album received widespread critical acclaim, with Rolling Stone magazine listing it in the top 10 avant-garde albums of 2017. Batkovic tours consistently, playing festivals such as Bushfire (South Africa), Supersonic (UK), Le Guess Who (NL) and the Montreux Jazz Festival. He is currently recording a new EP for Invada, collaborating with the English electronic musician James Holden, and Clive Deamer, drummer with the bands Radiohead and Portishead.
