Dear Mr Jones,

I refer to your Freedom of Information request regarding funding from specified companies. The responses to your questions are below:

Has the university received funding from any of the following companies since 2013: BAE Systems, Babcock International, Qinetiq, Rolls-Royce; Serco; Cobham and Raytheon UK, Airbus, DXC Technology, General Dynamics UK, Leonardo MW UK, Lockheed Martin UK?

Yes

If so, please include the following details:

a. Total funding supplied by the company

£4,350 by the Babcock International group

b. The titles of the projects it is associated with Three students have been sponsored by Babcock International group to undertake credit bearing courses at the University.

c. Descriptions of the projects it is associated with See response to b).

You have a right under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FoISA) to request a review of this decision by the University of Stirling. If you wish to exercise this right, you must write to the University to request a review within forty working days of receipt of this decision. Your request for a review must be in writing and you must specify your name and address for correspondence. You must also identify the decision that you wish reviewed.

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of a review, you have a right under the FoISA to appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner. If you wish to do so, you must appeal to the Commissioner within six months following the date of receipt of the review notice. Details on how to appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner are available on their website www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal

You also have the right to appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law following a decision of the Commissioner.

Yours faithfully

Freedom of Information Unit

University of Stirling
