

The role of the Ministry of youth and sport in developing the sports activity

The Ministry of Youth and Sport plays a vital role in developing sports activity by setting policies and strategies, providing facilities and equipment, and encouraging mass participation among youth. It supports talented athletes through training and financial aid, organizes competitions to discover new talents, and represents the country in international events. In addition, it promotes sports as a tool for health, social unity, and national pride while contributing to economic growth through sports-related activities.
