

Manager: Good morning, Yassin. Please, have a seat. How are you today?

Yassin: Good morning! I'm doing well, thank you. How about you?

Manager: I'm great, thanks. So, Yassin, can you tell me a little about yourself?

Yassin: Sure. I recently finished my studies in business administration, and I'm very interested in working in a team where I can develop my skills and contribute to company goals.

Manager: That's good to hear. I see you worked at your previous company for a while. Why did you decide to leave?

Yassin: I really enjoyed my time there and learned a lot, but I felt it was time to look for new challenges. I wanted a role where I could take on more responsibility and continue to grow professionally.

Manager: So you're looking for more opportunities to develop your skills?

Yassin: Exactly. I'm ready to apply what I've learned and keep improving in a more dynamic environment.

Manager: Why do you want to work with us in particular?

Yassin: I've read a lot about your company's focus on innovation and teamwork. I believe it's the perfect place to learn and grow professionally.

Manager: Excellent answer. Do you have any experience working in a similar role?

Yassin: Yes, I had an internship last summer where I helped manage client reports and assisted in team meetings.

Manager: Great. Thank you, Yassin. We'll be in touch soon.

Yassin: Thank you for your time. I appreciate the opportunity!
