

:Choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d 1

- Let me give you (an – some – many – two) advice.
- Why (is – are – does – were) your hair wet? Is it raining outside?
- She hasn't got (a – any – many – an) money to buy books.
- Have we got (any – little – a little – many) biscuits? I'm hungry.
- There is very (a little – little – few – a few) milk left; could you get some when you are out?
- . There are (any – some – little – a little) sandwiches in the fridge if you are still hungry.
- . Would you like (anything – something – some – no) more bread?
- . How (much – many – little – any) orange juice have we got?
- . My new furniture (is – are – were – will) being delivered today.
- . We haven't got (much – a little – a few – many) baggage.
- . I wasn't given (much – a little – many – a few) pocket money when I was a child.
- . Was there (a few – many – much – a little) food left after the wedding?
- I didn't have (a few – a little – many – much) friends when I was at school.
- Have you been to (a few – a little – many – much) different countries?
- There aren't (a few – a little – many – much) good programmes on TV this week.
- This is easy. I'm not making (a few – a little – any – much) mistakes at all.
- I'm sorry, sir, there is (any – no – some – nothing) lobster left; would you like to try something else?
- There are only (few – a few – little – a little) olives left in the bottom of the jar.
- Would you like (anything – nothing – everything – someone) to drink?
- Don't forget to buy a (box – packet – jar – tube) of toothpaste.

2. Write an essay of (15) lines “The importance of learning English .”

3. Compose a dialogue between you and your friend about the advantages and the disadvantages of online shopping

4. Rewrite the following sentences :

---

This is Mum and Dad's favourite program.	(always)
Big parties aren't to his taste.	(enjoy)
Right now she is in the meeting room.	(a meeting)
My wedding is on the first of June.	(I am)
We use hammers to hit nails.	(used to)
She will get accustomed to life in Europe	(used to)
I just can't adapt to this life style.	(used to)
I've become familiar with eating with chopsticks.	(used to)

---

4) Rewrite

- 1. They always enjoy this program
- 2. He doesn't enjoy big parties
- 3. She's having a meeting
- 4. I am getting married on the first of June
- 5. Hammers are used to hit nails
- 6. She will get used to life in Europe
- 7. I just can't get used to this life style
- 8. I am used to eating with chopsticks

3) Dialogue

Ali: Hey Yassin! Have you tried online shopping recently?

Yassin: Yeah, I buy most of my stuff online now. It's really convenient!

Ali: True. You can order anything from home without wasting time in traffic or waiting in lines.

Yassin: Exactly, and sometimes the prices are cheaper, especially with discounts and free delivery.

Ali: But don't you think there are some disadvantages too?

Yassin: Of course. You can't check the product's quality before buying it.

Ali: Right, and sometimes what you get looks completely different from the picture!

Yassin: Also, returning items can take a long time.

Ali: And there's the risk of scams or fake websites.

Yassin: That's why it's important to buy from trusted stores.

Ali: Overall, online shopping is useful if you're careful.

Yassin: I agree. It saves time and effort, but we should be smart shoppers!

2) Essay

English is one of the most important and widely spoken languages in the world. It connects people from different countries and cultures, allowing them to communicate and understand each other easily. Learning English helps students in their education, as most scientific research, books, and online resources are written in English. It is also the main language used in technology, business, and international communication. Knowing English gives people more job opportunities and helps them succeed in global companies. Moreover, it allows travelers to communicate when visiting other countries and to learn about new cultures. English also helps us enjoy movies, songs, and news from around the world without translation. By learning English, we can express our thoughts more clearly and confidently. It improves our social and professional lives and makes us more open-minded. In today's modern world, English is not just a subject at school but a key skill for success in the future. Therefore, everyone should make an effort to learn and practice English every day.