

HUGH AND MONTAGUE LENEY TRAVELLING AWARDS TRUST

APPLICATIONS ARE OPEN!

Are you 16 - 19 years old?

Thinking about taking a gap year or undertaking a humanitarian project?

In need of financial support to help fund an organised visit?

If so...

The Hugh and Montague Leney Travelling Awards are available to students who are thinking of taking a gap year or travelling during the school holidays to undertake a humanitarian project overseas.

Applicants are required to be at least 16 years of age by the time the trip takes place.

The overseas project is required to be a minimum of at least 4 weeks but particularly strong applications for shorter projects may still be considered.

Individual awards of up to £2500 are made available every year. Awards higher than £2500 may also be considered for particularly strong applications.

If you wish to apply, or require more information, please visit the Hugh and Montague Leney Trust website where you will find the application form and further details.

The deadline for applications this year has been extended to Friday 2nd May 2025.
