

The Sir Coates Painting Masters FAQ

Can I enter if I am not a member of the Duncan Rhodes Painting Academy?

Yes, this event is open to everybody. Members can enter monthly painting challenges separate from the Sir Coates masters.

Can I leave my miniatures at the event overnight?

We will be in attendance on each day of the Expo but the Painting Masters judging takes place on Sunday only. Winning entries may be kept on display but are left at their owner's risk (we will have these locked and be on site).

Can I enter the Squires category if I am 15 years old?

Yes, Any person aged 15 and under can enter (even if it is one day before your 16th birthday).

Can I enter the other categories if I am 15 and under?

Yes, if you feel keen and confident entering the other categories, you can, but you can only enter a specific miniature into one category and only once.

What is the deadline for entries?

The deadline is 12:00pm on Sunday.

What miniatures are allowed in the competition?

Any and all of them! The categories have been specifically chosen to cover any miniature system or miniature range available.

Will Duncan Rhodes be judging the competition?

Yes, Duncan will be on hand as chief judge alongside some guest judges.

Can I purchase a Sir Coates or Gyzmo exclusive miniature at the event?

Yes! We will have plenty available over the weekend to purchase.

If I give my personal details in the entry form, will they be secure?

Absolutely! We will have a locked file for the entry forms that will never be left unattended and after the event, all information will be shredded securely.

What counts as a board game miniature?

Any miniature that comes within a board game that includes a separate board with a grid or hex system. The miniature must also not be an alternate miniature to an option in wargame (Space Hulk Terminators/Genestealers, Underworlds, etc...) As these are best placed in the Single Miniature category.

Can the miniature/s entered be from any manufacturer from any minis range?

Yes. The miniatures entered can be from any manufacturer and any miniature range from any release date. However, please remember this is a painting contest for everybody so no sexually explicit miniatures depicting adult and inappropriate acts.
