

I'M YOURS slides

The Lord's servant is one who has found favor with the Lord.

2 Corinthians 1:2 "Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

Eph 2:8-10 "For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them."

1 Corinthians 15:10 "But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me."

The Lord's servant is one who believes in the power and promise of the Lord.

Galatians 3:28 "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus."

Proverbs 3:5-8 "Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil. It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones."

Proverbs 11:16 "A gracious woman gets honor, and violent men get riches."

Hebrews 11:6 "And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him."

2 Corinthians 1:20 "For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why it is through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory."

The Servant of the Lord is one who accepts the Lord's will and surrenders to it.

Nancy Leigh DeMoss Wolgemuth, "Lies Women Believe and the Truth that Sets them Free, "Surrender is defined by Webster's as "To give oneself up into the power of another." The fact is, the only one qualified to fill that position is God- first because all power belongs to Him, and second because HE won't abuse the power. The word surrender is a military term. It means a war is taking place, and someone wins and someone loses."

Exodus 3:11 “But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?”

Exodus 4:1 “Then Moses answered, “But behold, they will not believe me or listen to my voice, for they will say, ‘The LORD did not appear to you.’” No one will believe me God.

Exodus 4:10 “But Moses said to the LORD, “Oh, my Lord, I am not eloquent, either in the past or since you have spoken to your servant, but I am slow of speech and of tongue...

Exodus 4:13, 14 But he said, “Oh, my Lord, please send someone else.” Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses...”

Luke 12:48b “Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more.”

Phil Ryken “Luke” p.693 “The more you have been given, the greater your responsibility to use it for the glory of God.”

Romans 12:1-2 “I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.”

Carolyn Custis James “Lost Women of the Bible” She writes looking at Mary later in life as she stands looking up at the cross, her Son is hanging from. “Who is this broken women? She was Jesus’ first disciple...She was a hearer and doer of God’s Word. Faced with a hard and costly choice, she blazed a path of faith and courage for all women – old and young – and demonstrated the power of God in a woman moved by His grace to risk everything to advance God’s cause...Mary was the first to believe and lay down her for the Gospel. She was the first to leave all to follow Jesus...”

Whose servant are you?

Carolyn Custis James Luke 11:27-28 “As he said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!” But he said, “Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!” “Jesus zeroed in on two institutions for women – motherhood and family – and redefined them both. According to Jesus, a woman’s life is truly blessed not when she becomes a mother, but when she hears and obeys His Word. The crowning glory for a woman (as for a man) is to be a disciple of Jesus Christ. This is a woman’s true identity and the only path to blessedness. To base our identity on anything else is to stand on shaky ground...Instead, these treasured roles of wife and mother have become the heart and soul of our lives as women...We are at a loss (and we lose ourselves) when we don’t marry, or we can’t have children or when our families are less than perfect.”

Jeremiah 29:11-14 “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you. You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you, declares the LORD,
