

Paul's Six Points of Gospel Change
for the whole church

Romans 12:1–3

Romans 12:1–3 (Paul's 6 points of Gospel change)

Verse 1a (point 1)

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God . . .

Romans 12:1–3 (Paul's 6 points of Gospel change)

Verse 1b (point 2)

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God . . .

Romans 12:1–3 (Paul's 6 points of Gospel change)

Verse 1c (point 3)

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship . . .

Romans 12:1–3 (Paul's 6 points of Gospel change)

Verse 2a (point 4)

[AND] do not not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind . . .

Romans 12:1–3 (Paul's 6 points of Gospel change)

Verse 2b (point 5)

[AND] do not not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Romans 12:1–3 (Paul's 6 points of Gospel change)

Verse 3 (point 6)

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment [lit. “sober thinking”], each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.
