‘The wind blows
wherever it pleases.
You hear its sound,
but you cannot tell
where it comes from
or where it is going.
So it is with everyone
born of the Spirit.’
(John 3:8)

‘For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.
For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.’
(John 3:16-17)

‘Do not love the world or anything in the world.
If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in them.
For everything in the world - the desires of the flesh, the desires of the eyes, and the pride of life - comes not from the Father but from the world.’

(1 John 2:15-16)

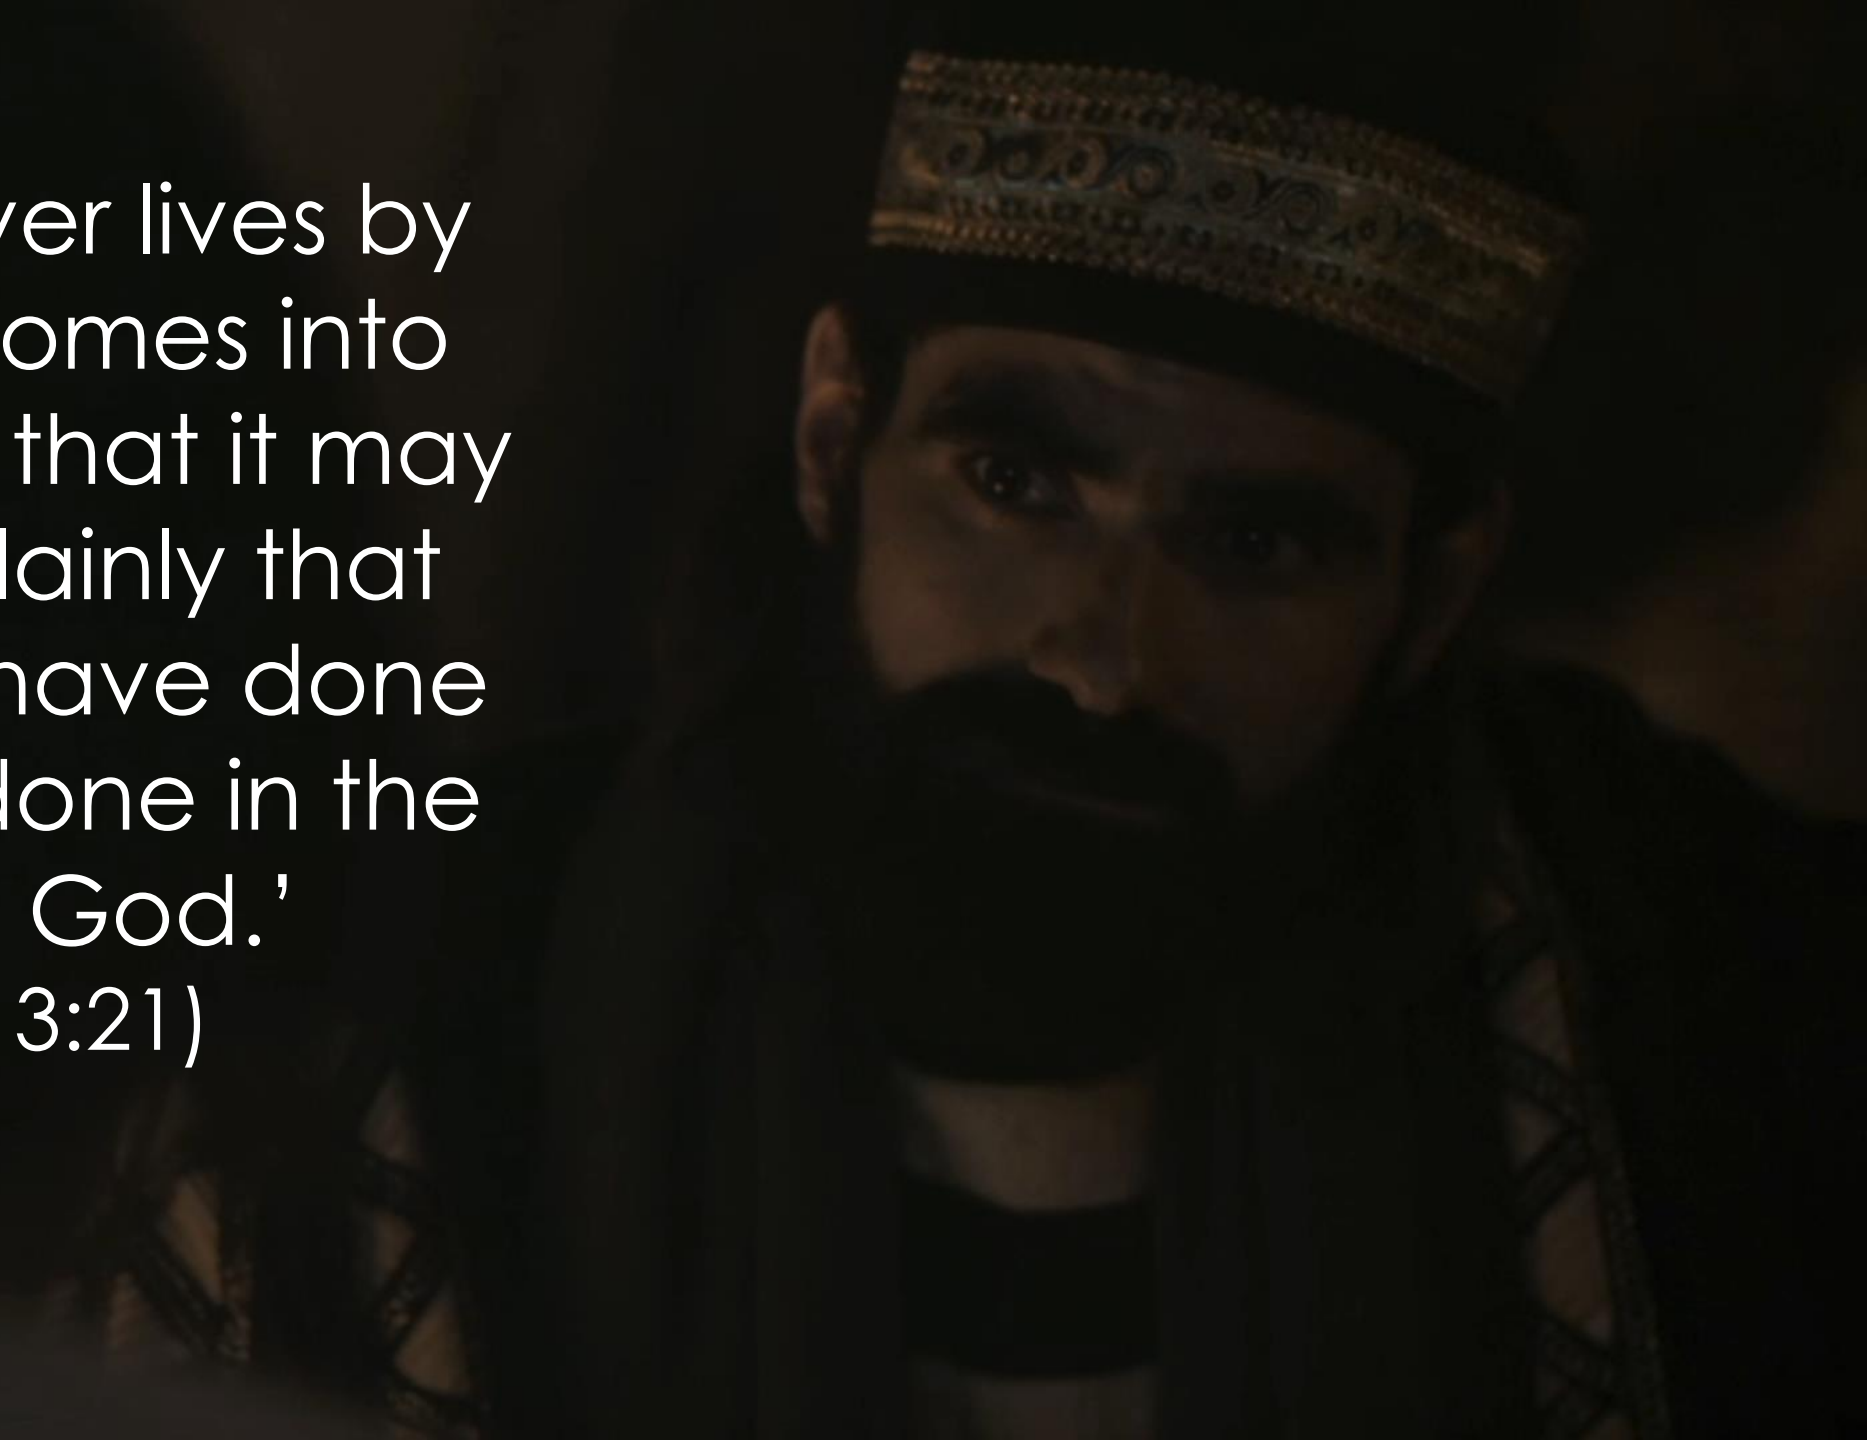

‘For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.’
(John 3:17)

‘But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what they have done
has been done in the sight of God.’

(John 3:21)

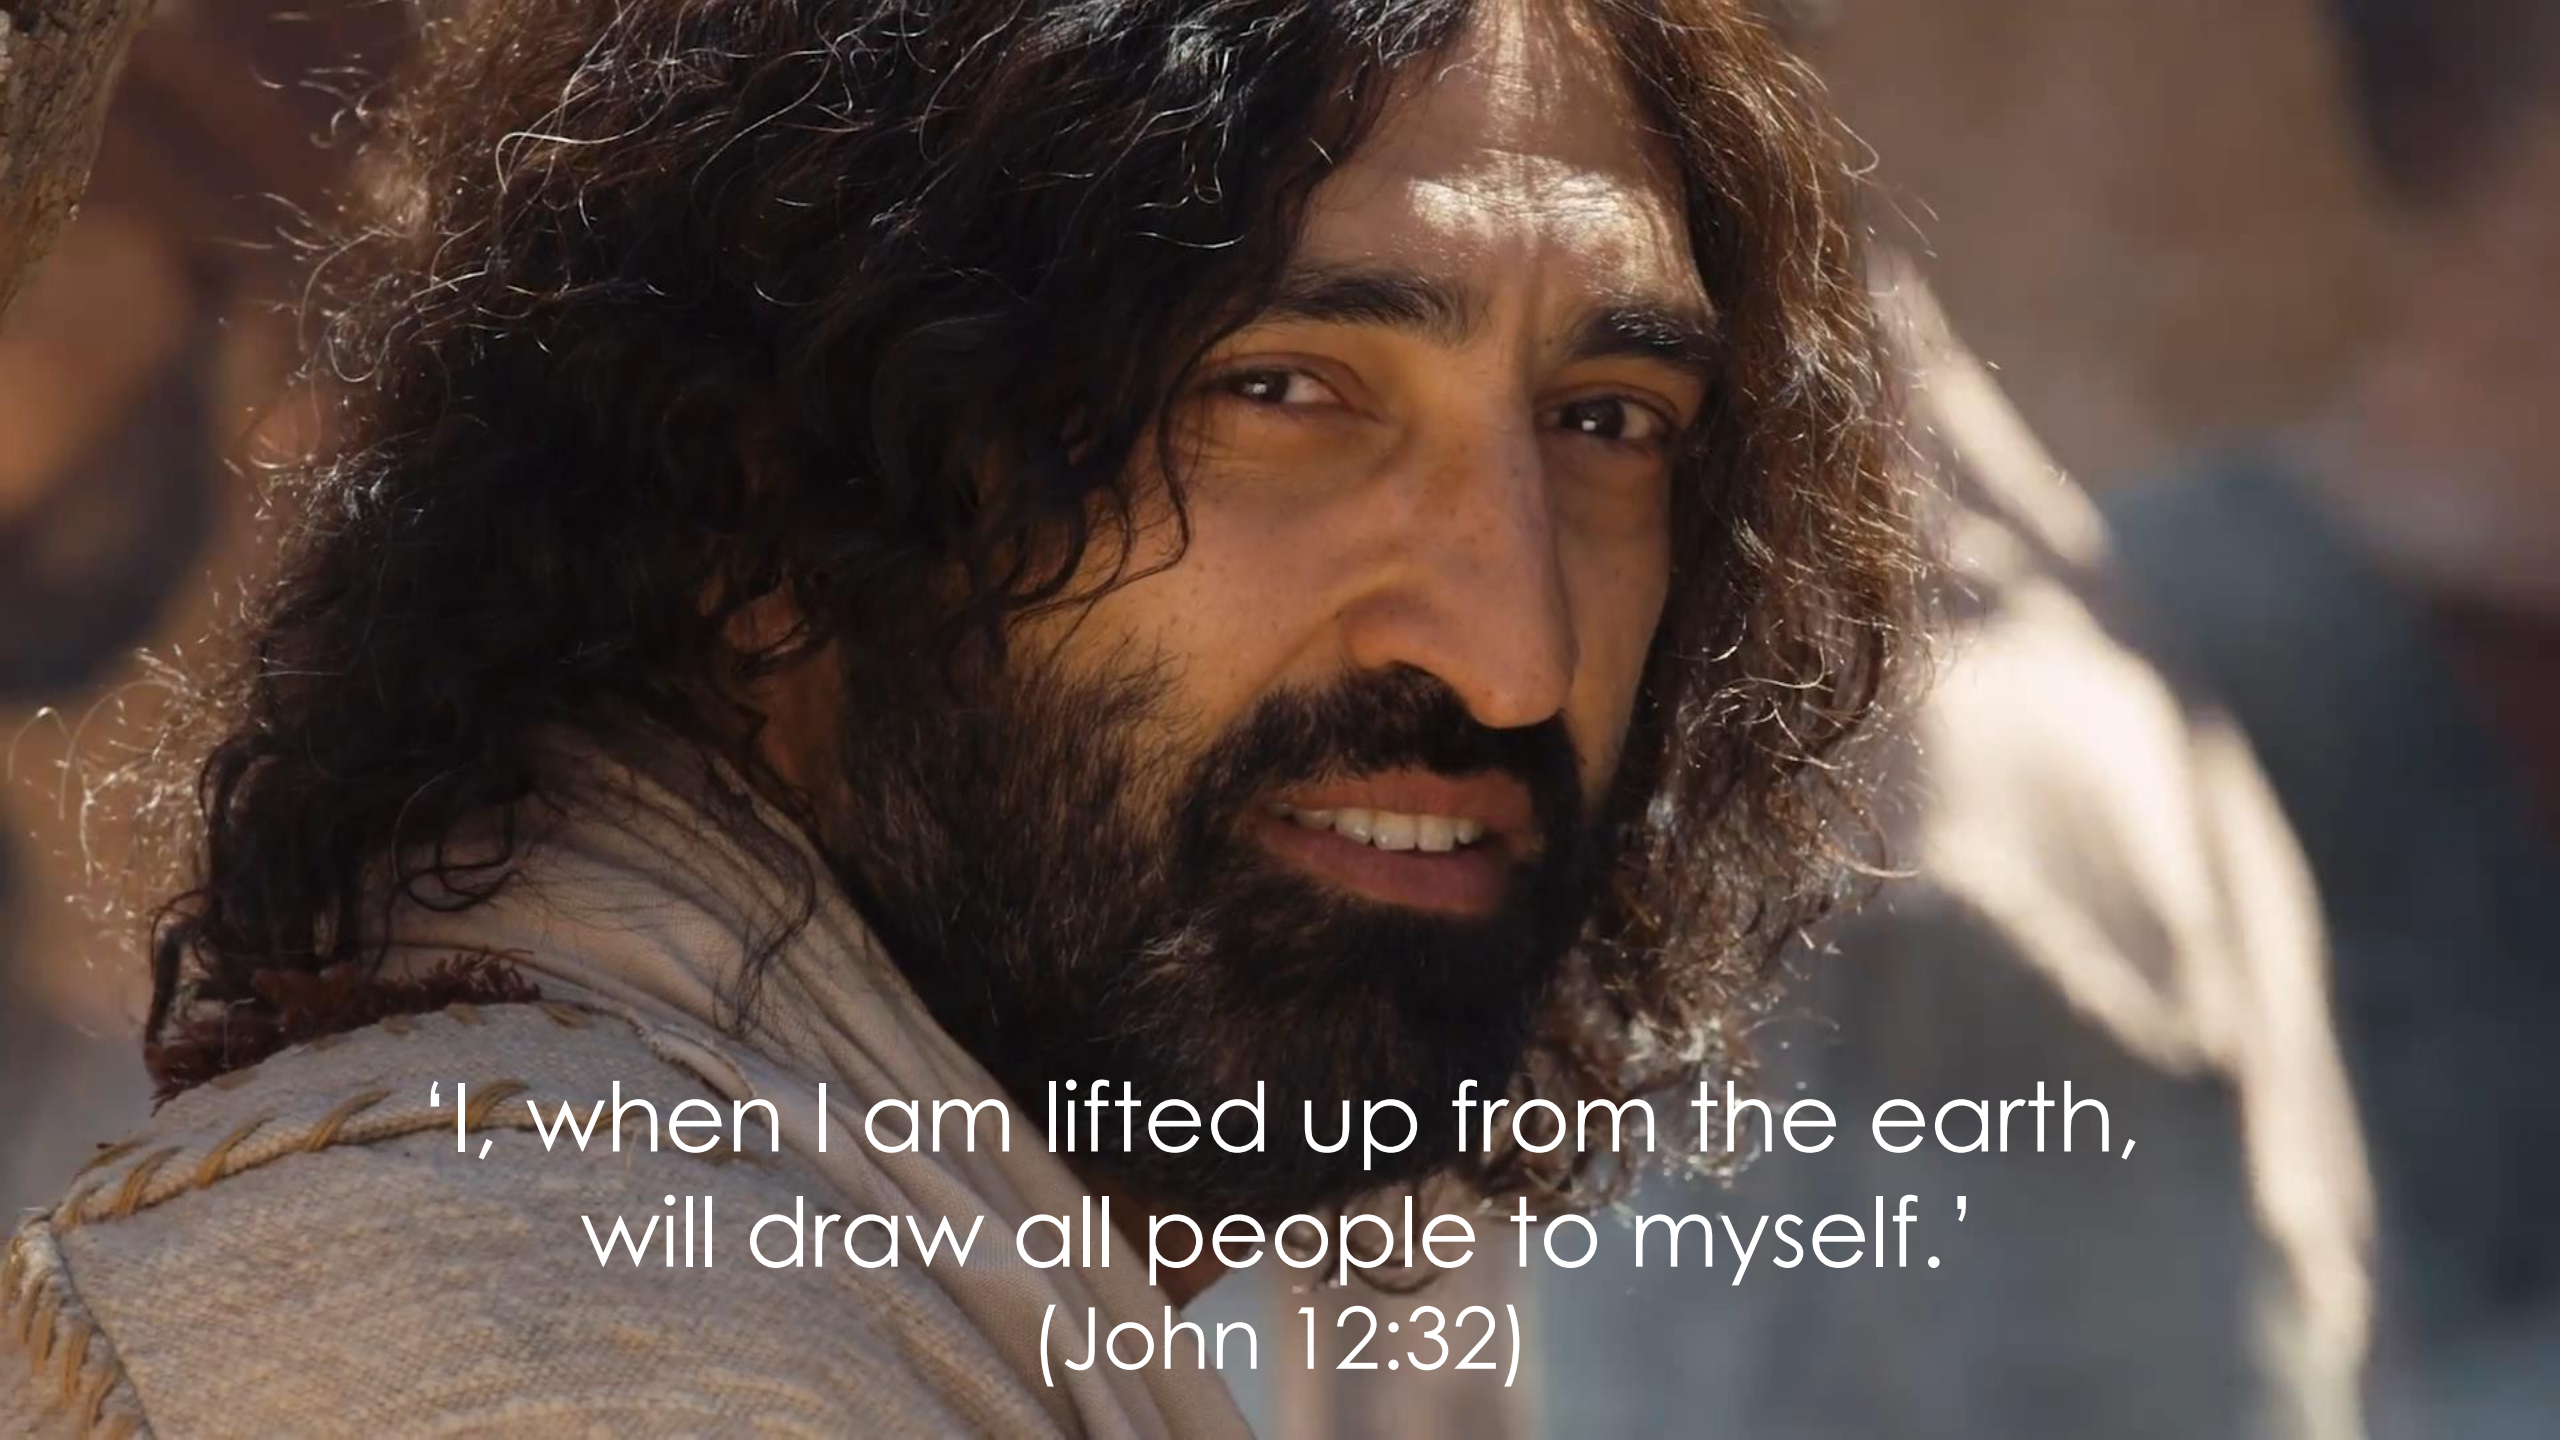

A cinematic still from a film depicting three men in traditional Middle Eastern or biblical attire. The man on the left is in the foreground, slightly out of focus, wearing a dark head covering and a white garment. The man in the center is wearing a white turban and a dark robe, looking towards the right. The man on the right is in the foreground, wearing a black head covering with a gold and blue patterned band, a dark beard, and a dark robe with a white and black striped sash. He is looking towards the right with a serious expression. The background is a textured, light-colored wall.

‘Does our law condemn a man without first hearing him to find out what he is doing?’
(John 7:51)

‘I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.’
(John 12:32)
