

The Lord's Supper Proclaims . . .

1 Corinthians 11:23-32

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. (1 Corinthians 11:26)

I. The Lord's Supper proclaims the Lord's death.

I. The Lord's Supper proclaims the Lord's death.

²³ For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, ²⁴ and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

²⁵ In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” ²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. (1 Cor.11:23-26)

“This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

*“This cup is the new covenant in my blood.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”*

“My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” (Matthew 27:46)

“It is finished” (John 19:30).

27 Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. 28 Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

(1 Cor.11:27-28)

A Warning:

Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. (v.27)

A Plea:

Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. (v.28)

“As I take the bread and cup for myself, by my actions I am proclaiming, ‘I need you and trust you, Lord Jesus, to forgive my sins and give life and health to my soul.’”
