

The Jesus Affect

Interruptions - Luke 19:1-10

The busier a person is, the more they have on their agenda.

How do you react to interruptions?

He entered Jericho and was passing through. Luke 19:1

There was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. Luke 19: 2

He was trying to see who Jesus was, but he was not able because of the crowd, since he was a short man. Luke 19:3

So running ahead, he climbed up a sycamore tree to see Jesus, since He was about to pass that way.

Luke 19:4

When Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down because today I must stay at your house.” Luke 19:5

So he quickly came down and welcomed Him joyfully. Luke 19:6

All who saw it began to complain, “He’s gone to lodge with a sinful man!” Luke 19:7

But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, “Look, I’ll give half of my possessions to the poor, Lord! And if I have extorted anything from anyone, I’ll pay back four times as much!” Luke 19:8

“Today salvation has come to this house,” Jesus told him, “because he too is a son of Abraham.” Luke 19:9

“For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save the lost.” Luke 19:10

I. I want you to start reacting to interruptions in your agenda differently.

Nothing on your agenda is ever as important as fulfilling God's agenda.

II. I want you to start looking for men up in trees.

You see what you look for.

III. I want you to learn to use Jesus approach to helping people.

IV. I want you to examine your salvation.
