

Who Is Your One?
Luke 5:27-32

“It’s not an elaborate or complicated idea, but this simple idea led to our most evangelistically effective year to date. . . . What an incredible joy it was to have people come up to me at church and say, ‘Pastor, this is my one.’”

- J.D. Greear

I. We must be genuinely committed to Jesus Christ (vv.27-28).

As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged to go with him. Jesus did not let him, but said, “Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you.” So the man went away and began to tell in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed. (Mark 5:18-20)

I. We must be genuinely committed to Jesus Christ (vv.27-28).

II. We must be genuinely concerned for our unsaved friends and family members (vv.29-32)

And Jesus answered them, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.” (vv.31-32)

“[The New Testament book of] Acts records that believers would meet in one another’s homes and share meals (Acts 2:46). Much of our evangelism occurs as we’re simply living intentionally in our spheres of influence.”
