PALM SUNDAY

AND THE HEART OF THE CITY

LUKE 19:41-44

PRAYER

SCRIPTURE READING: LUKE 19:41-44

Observation: What is happening?

- This moment comes just after the Triumphal Entry (vv.28–40).
- As Jesus approaches the city, He weeps.
- His lament is not over suffering alone, but over spiritual blindness.

Interpretation: What can we learn (interpret) from this?

- Jesus Weeps for Those Who Didn't Understand Peace
- Some Were Blind to the Prince of Peace
- The Time of Visitation Came—But They Missed It

Application:

How can I apply / live this out?

- Don't Just Celebrate Once - Proclaim Always
- Pray for the Places Where Christ Still Weeps
- Recognize the Time of Christ's Visitation and Invitation
