The Unprofitable Servants

Luke 17 : 7-10

PRAYER

Observation: What is happening?

v7: Servant returns from the field

v8: The Master orders: "Prepare My supper"

v9: No extra thanks for mere duty

v10: Disciples: "We are unprofitable servants"

The background features a dark blue-grey gradient with a central graphic. This graphic consists of a large red circle at the top, a smaller light grey circle directly below it, and two large, semi-circular shapes in dark blue and brownish-gold that overlap each other and the central circles, creating a stylized, abstract composition.

Interpretation: What can we learn from this?

- Obedience Creates No Leverage
- Grace Empowers Our Service
- Humility Guards Against Entitlement

Application: What can I do? How do I live this out?

- Develop a Servant's Heart in Prayer
- Serve Without Expectation of Applause
- Lead as a Servant Leader
