SCRIPTURE READING

ISAIAH 7:10-16

Observation: What is happening?

- A virgin will conceive and bear a son named Emmanuel
- The psalm cries out for God to restore His people
- Paul describes the gospel of God's Son

Emmanuel

— God with us —

Interpretation: What can we learn?

- Love means God comes near
- Love saves us from our sins
- Response to this love is trust

Application: How should we live?

- Embrace Emmanuel's presence
- Receive the gift of salvation”
- Follow the Lord like Mary and Joseph

The background of the image is a winter scene. On the right side, there is a close-up of a snow-covered evergreen tree branch. The needles are dark green, and the snow is white. On the left side, there is a bright sunburst or light source, creating a lens flare effect with rays of light. The overall color palette is cool, with blues and greens, contrasted by the warm yellow of the sunburst.

YOU ARE NOT
