

THY WILL BE DONE · WEEK 14

How Long, O Lord?

The Fifth and Sixth Seals · Revelation 6:9–17 (ESV)

ONTARIO COMMUNITY CHURCH

THE FIFTH AND SIXTH SEALS

The martyrs cry.
God answers.

A white robe.

A family brought home.

A day no enemy can stand.

God will have His justice, in His time.

PSALM 79:10-13

“Let the avenging of the outpoured blood of your servants be known among the nations.”

The cry of the saints across centuries.

The cry for God to intervene.

FROM PRAYERS TO MARTYRS

Revelation 5 → Revelation 6

Rev 5:8: the prayers of the saints rise as incense.

Rev 6:9: the souls of the martyrs rest beneath the altar.

Lev 4:7: sacrificed lives are remembered and rewarded.

ESV PEW BIBLE
Turn to page

1222

Revelation 6:9–17

Let's read it together — follow in the pew bible or bible of choice

I · OBSERVATION — WHAT DOES THE TEXT SAY?

The Fifth and Sixth Seals

01 Souls Under the Altar (vv.9–11)

02 Creation Shakes (vv.12–14)

03 All Flesh Hides (vv.15–17)

II · INTERPRETATION — WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

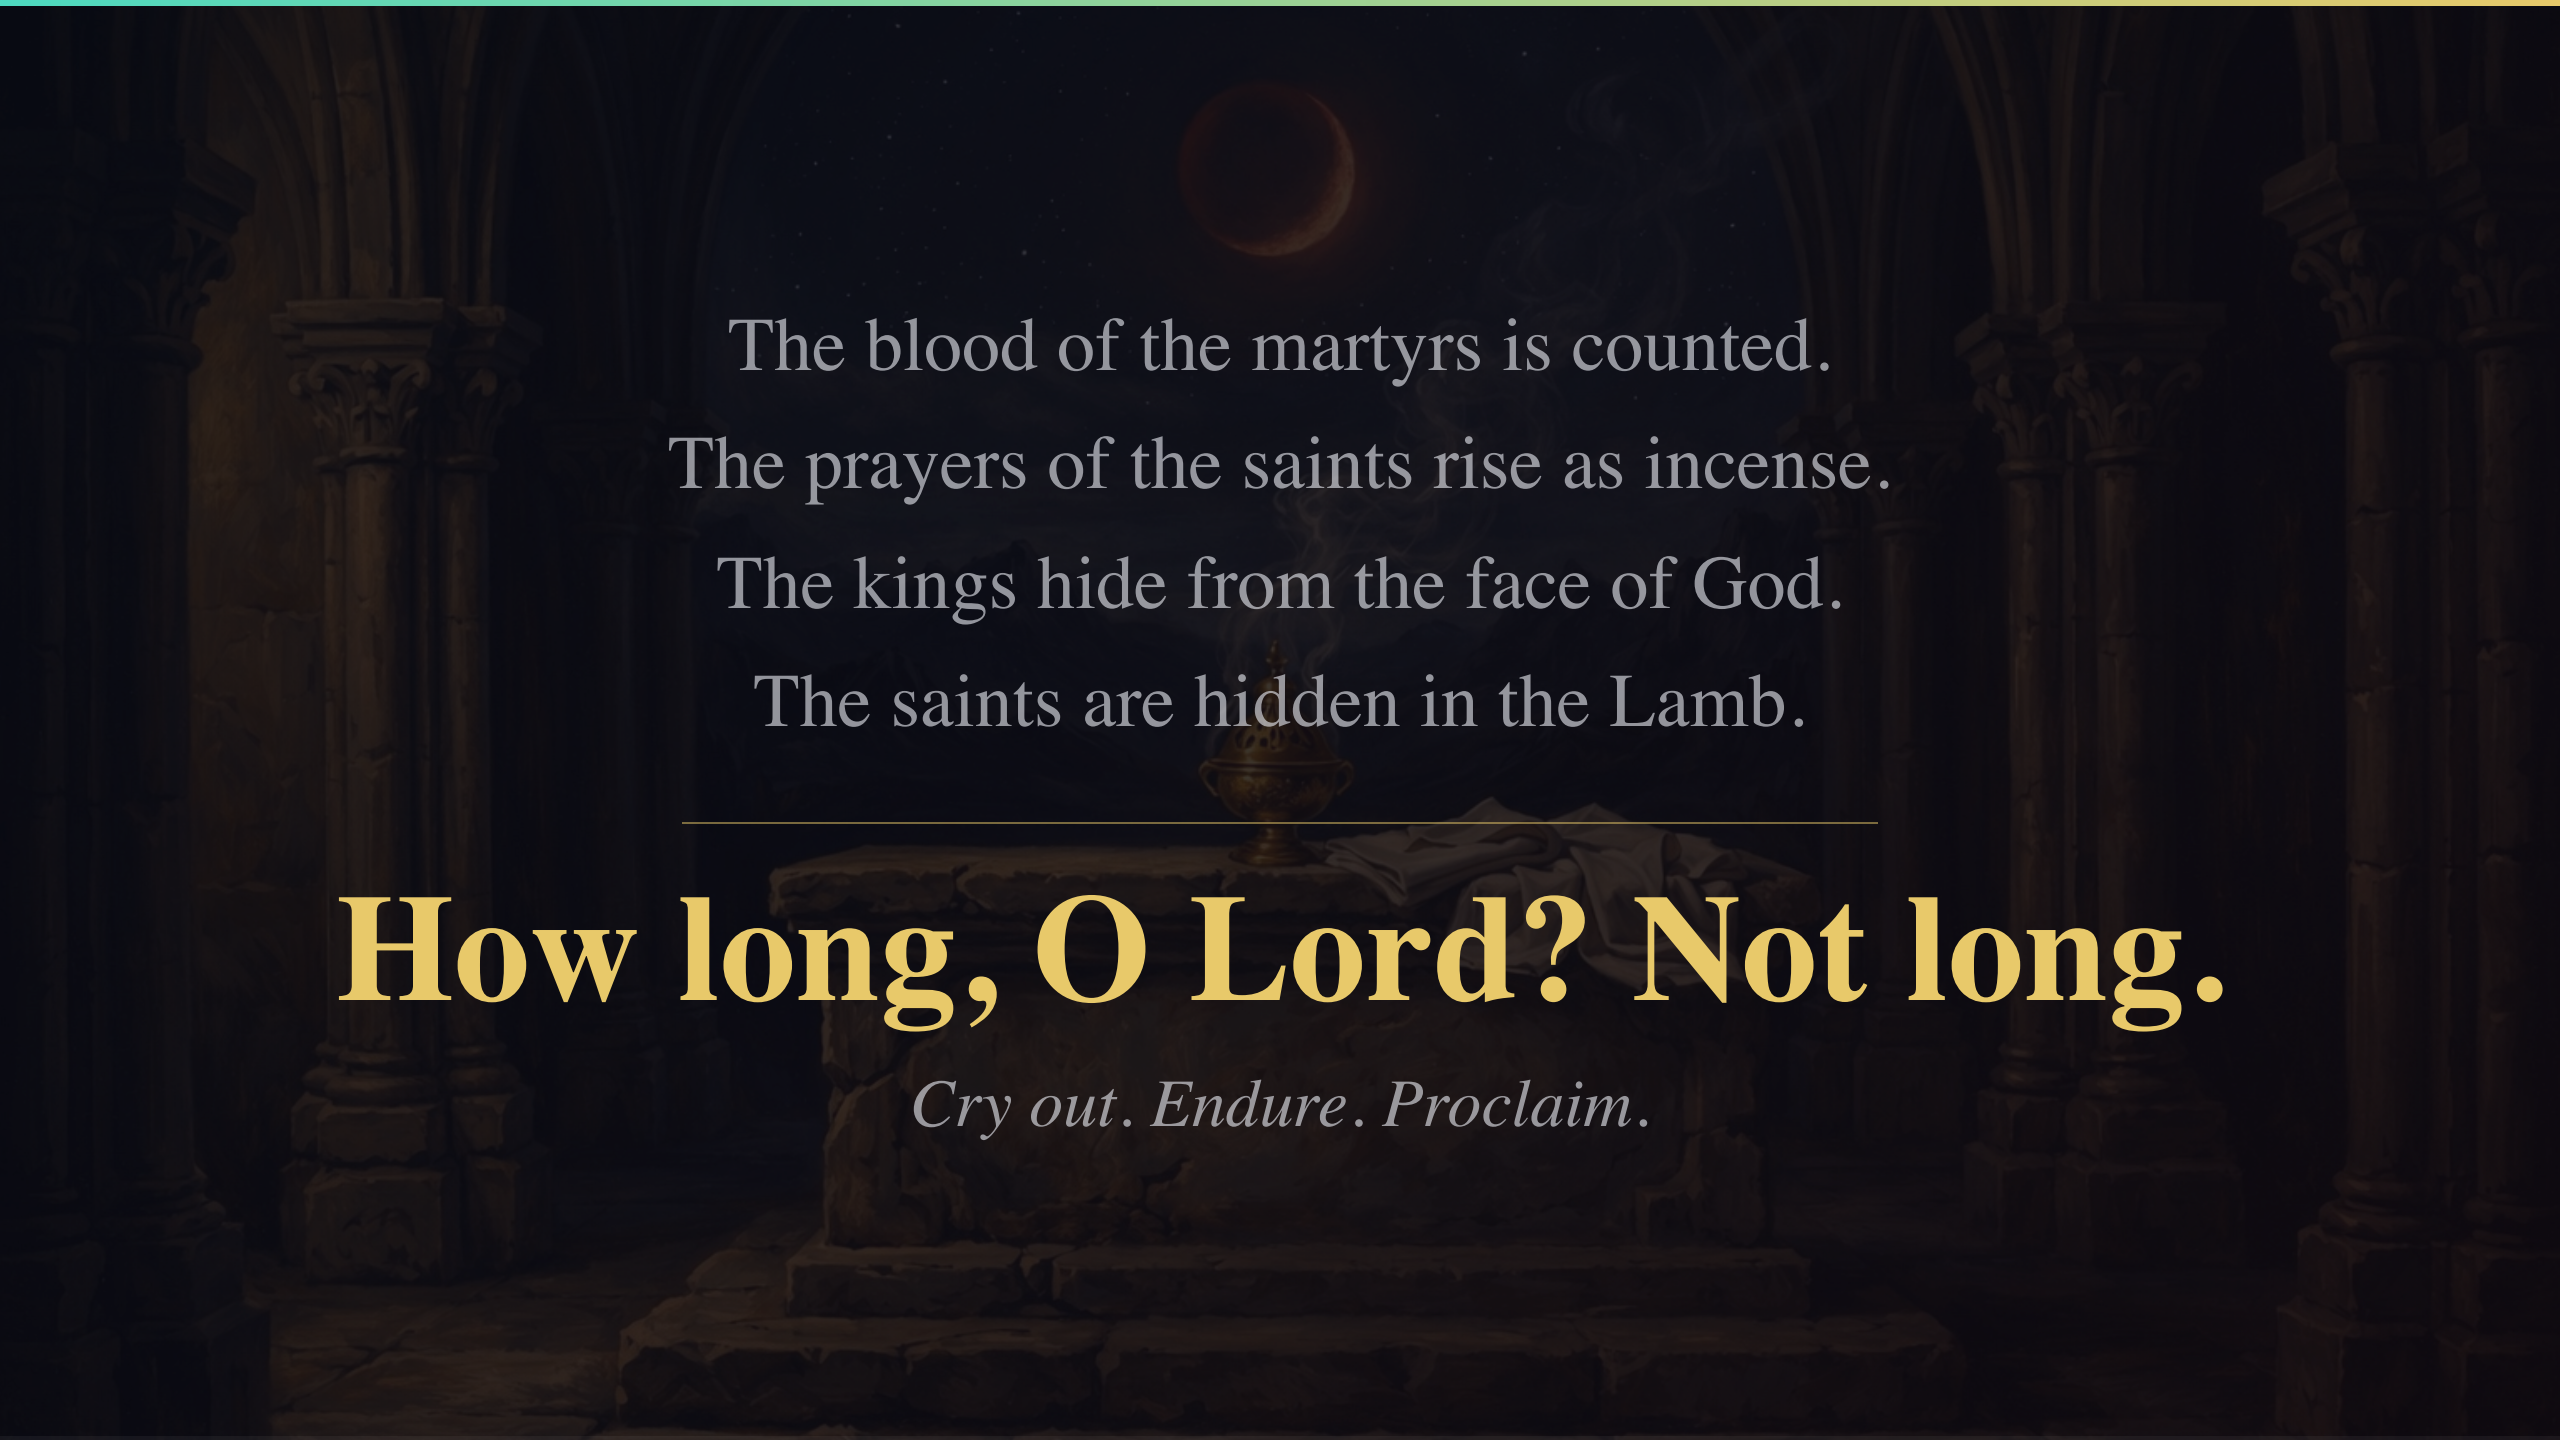

What Does It Mean?

- I1 God Is Not Late. He Works in His Own Timing.
- I2 The Martyrs Are Not Forgotten. They Wear White.
- I3 Two Kinds of Hiding. Two Kinds of Face.

III · APPLICATION — HOW SHOULD WE LIVE?

How Should We Live?

- A1 Cry Out to the Lord. Prayers Are Not Wasted.
- A2 Endure: God Restores His Own.
- A3 Proclaim. Share the Gospel Whatever the Cost.

The blood of the martyrs is counted.
The prayers of the saints rise as incense.
The kings hide from the face of God.
The saints are hidden in the Lamb.

How long, O Lord? Not long.

Cry out. Endure. Proclaim.

B E N E D I C T I O N