

Sermon Name: Christ as Redeemer

Scripture Reading: Isaiah 53 and Romans 3:23-24

Christ is Biblically presented as Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, as seen in Colossians 1:15-20, John 1:1-14, and Hebrews 1:1-3.

Opening Question: Do you feel that the world is going mad?

Bible Verse	ESV Pew Bible Page
Isaiah 53	729
Romans 3:23-24	1118

Key Takeaways:

- Jesus' death on the cross was the ultimate sacrifice to atone for our sins once and for all. We could never redeem ourselves. (Isaiah 53:5)
- When we put our faith in Christ, we are redeemed and reconciled to God. We move from separation to salvation. (Romans 3:23-24)
- Belief in Christ is what saves us, not good works or religious rituals. His grace is a free gift. (John 3:15)
- All of us have sinned and fall short of God's glory, but Christ bore our sins so we could have new life. (Isaiah 53:6)
- Our days on earth are fleeting, but in Christ we have the promise of eternal life. He conquers death. (John 10:28)
- Even in an uncertain world, being born again through Christ offers us an imperishable hope, grounded in the enduring word of God. (1 Peter 1:23)
- Will you accept God's gift of salvation through Jesus today? Believe in Him and receive redeeming grace. (Romans 3:23-24)

Closing Question: In light of Christ's redemptive work, how will you respond?
