

SACRED JOURNEY: FROM DEATH TO LIFE

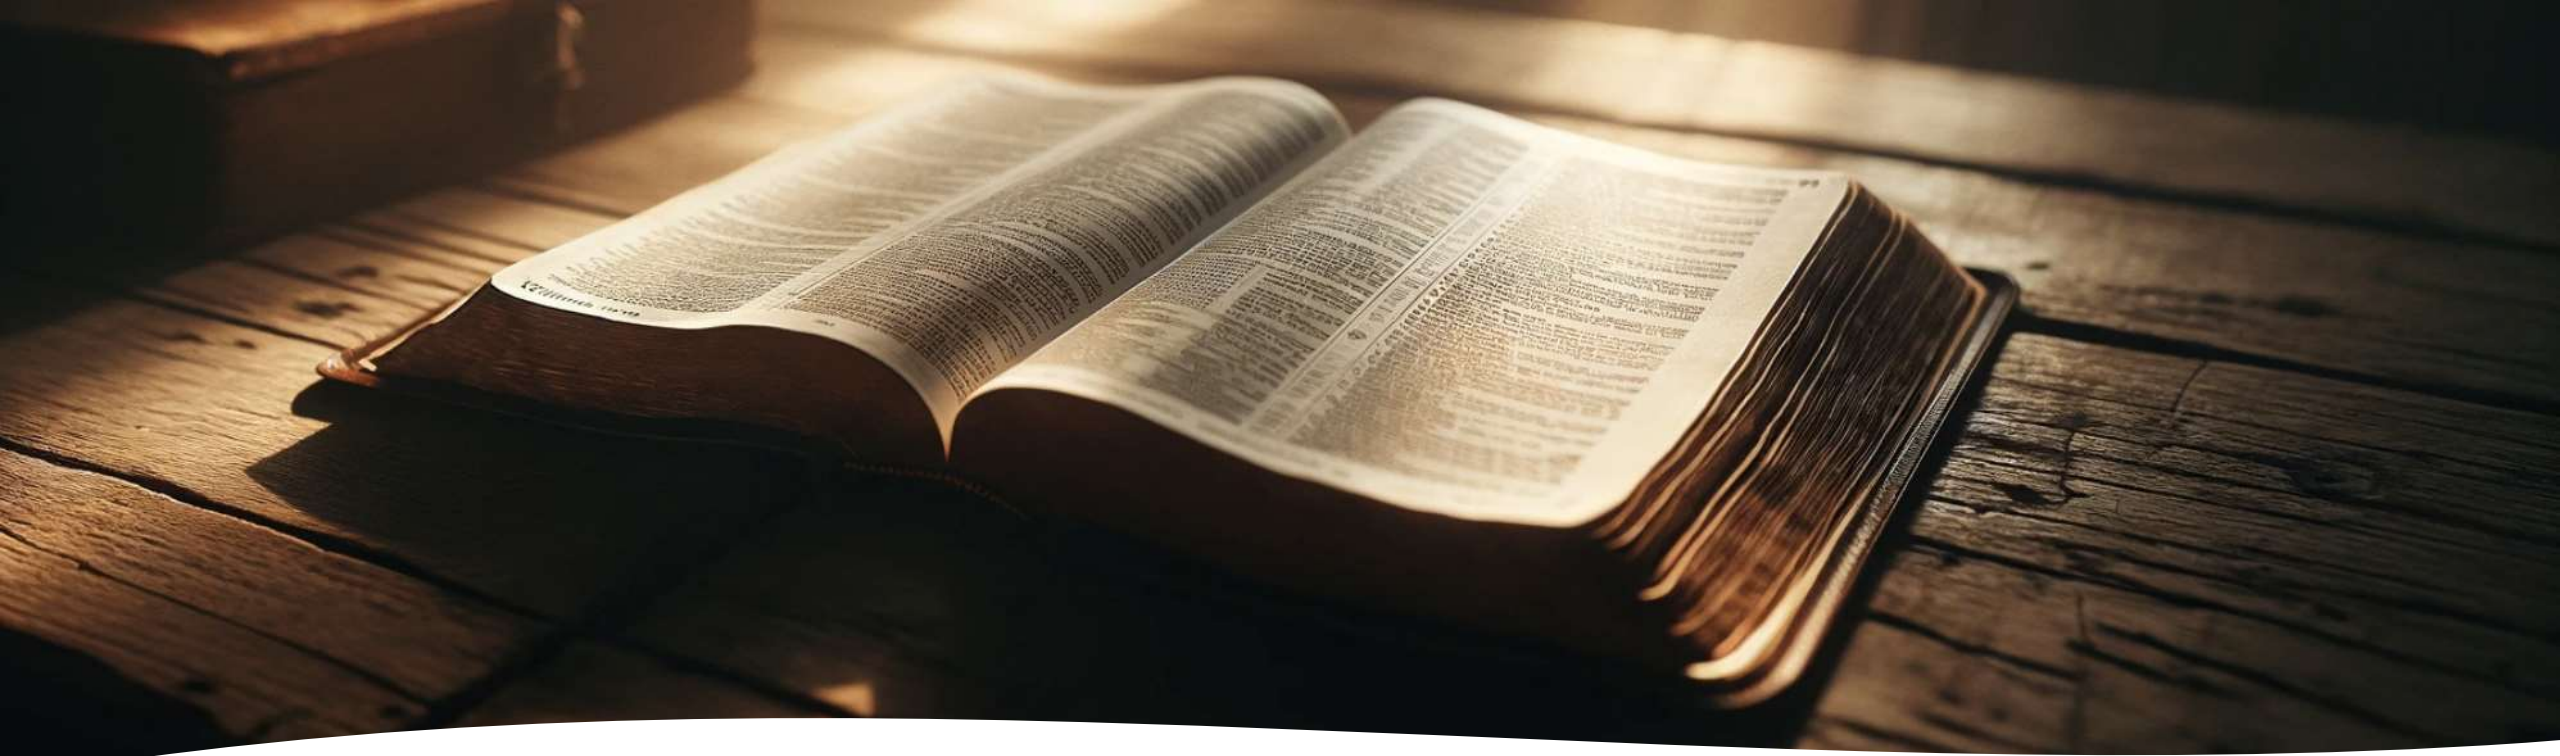

Our Redemption in Christ: Ephesians 1:7-10

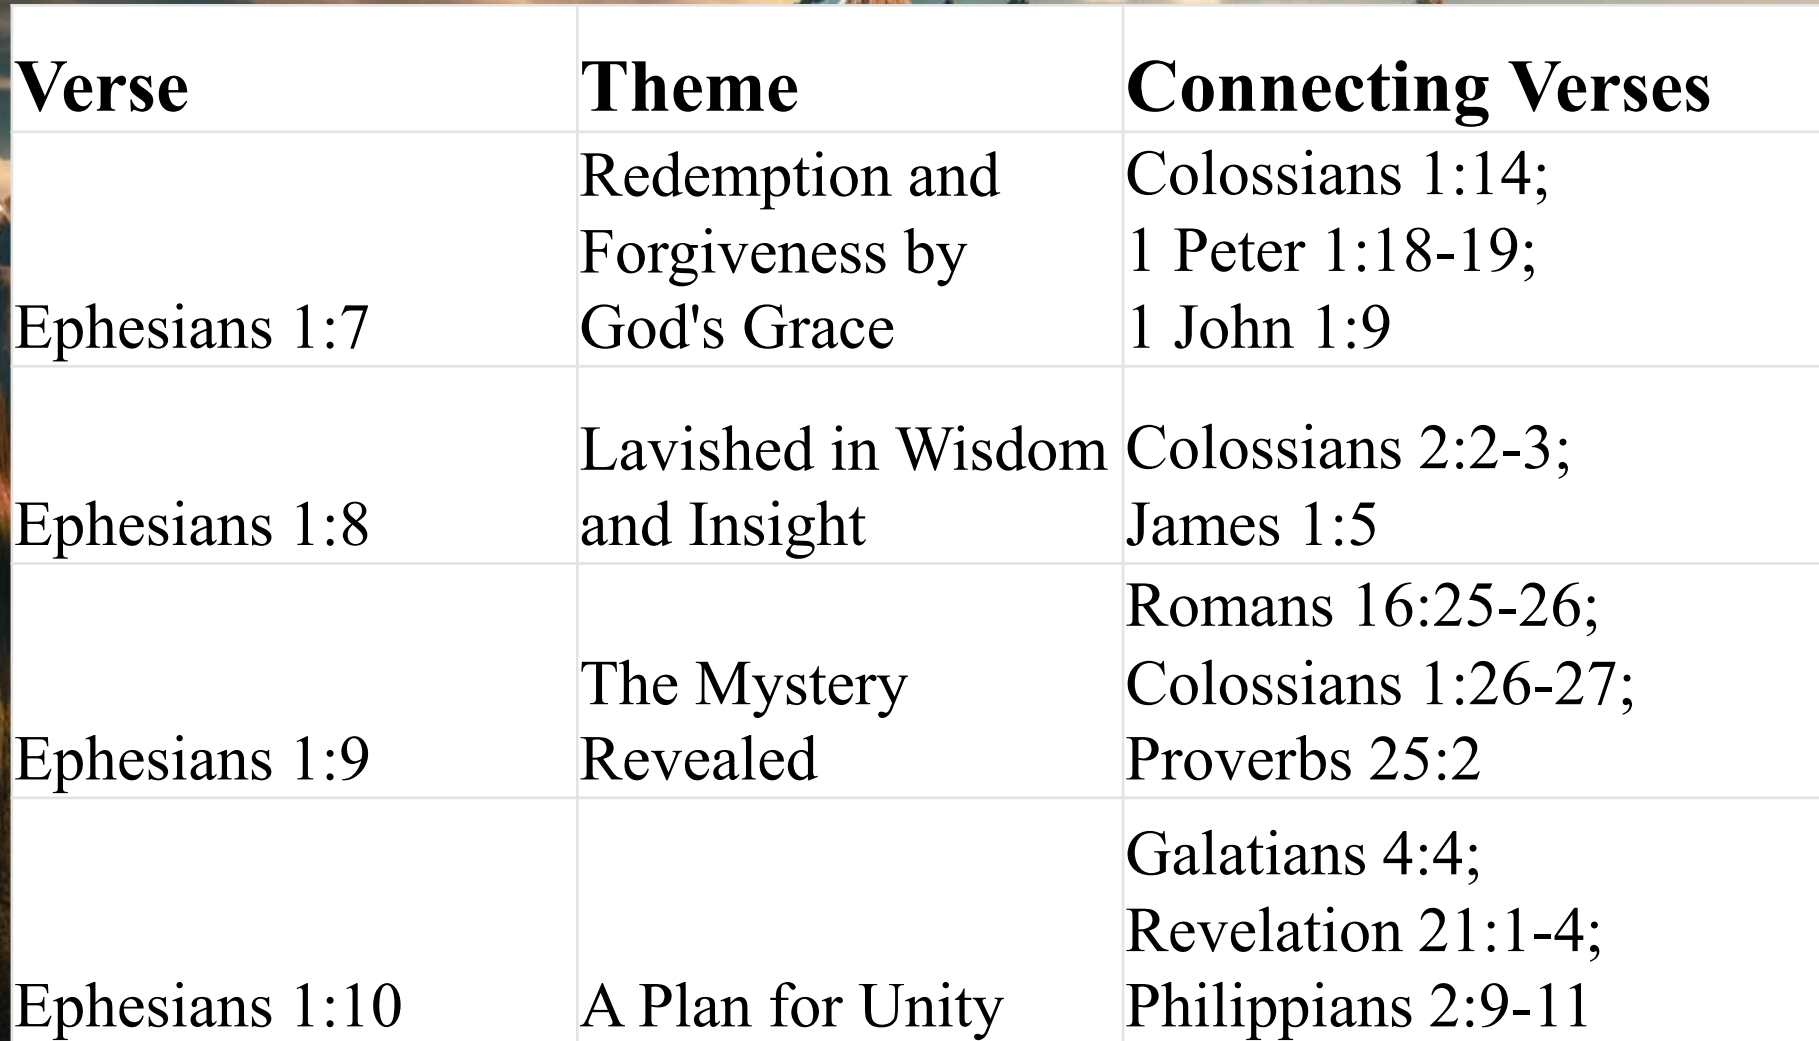

Question:

Have you felt a deep transformation because of Christ's forgiveness?

Ephesians 1:7-10 | Page 1159 | ESV Pew Bible

Verse	Theme	Connecting Verses
Ephesians 1:7	Redemption and Forgiveness by God's Grace	Colossians 1:14; 1 Peter 1:18-19; 1 John 1:9
Ephesians 1:8	Lavished in Wisdom and Insight	Colossians 2:2-3; James 1:5
Ephesians 1:9	The Mystery Revealed	Romans 16:25-26; Colossians 1:26-27; Proverbs 25:2
Ephesians 1:10	A Plan for Unity	Galatians 4:4; Revelation 21:1-4; Philippians 2:9-11

Consider:

What if all of the work that you did was just a drop in the ocean of debt that you could never pay off? How would it feel or change your life if someone else paid it off completely?

An open book with text overlaid. The background is a dark, moody photograph of an open book with its pages spread out. The text is in a white, serif font, centered on the page. The overall tone is solemn and religious.

John 3:16

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.”

An open book is shown in a dark, low-key setting. The pages are slightly aged and the text is mostly illegible due to the lighting. Overlaid on the book is white text. The text is centered and reads: "Romans 6:23" followed by a quote: "For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." The quote is enclosed in quotation marks.

Romans 6:23

“For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

An open Bible is shown from a high angle, lying flat on a dark wooden surface. The pages are filled with text, and the lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the paper and the binding. The text is overlaid in white, making it stand out against the darker background of the Bible and the wood.

Ephesians 1:7

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace

An open Bible is shown from a top-down perspective, slightly angled. The pages are filled with dense, small text, likely a study Bible or a version with extensive commentary. The text is arranged in columns. The central focus is a white text overlay. The background is dark, making the white text stand out prominently. The Bible's spine is visible at the bottom center, and the pages curve upwards towards the top.

Romans 3:23

for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God

An open Bible is shown in a dark, low-key lighting. The pages are filled with text, but the focus is on the overlaid text. The Bible is open to a page that appears to be Ephesians 1:8.

Ephesians 1:8

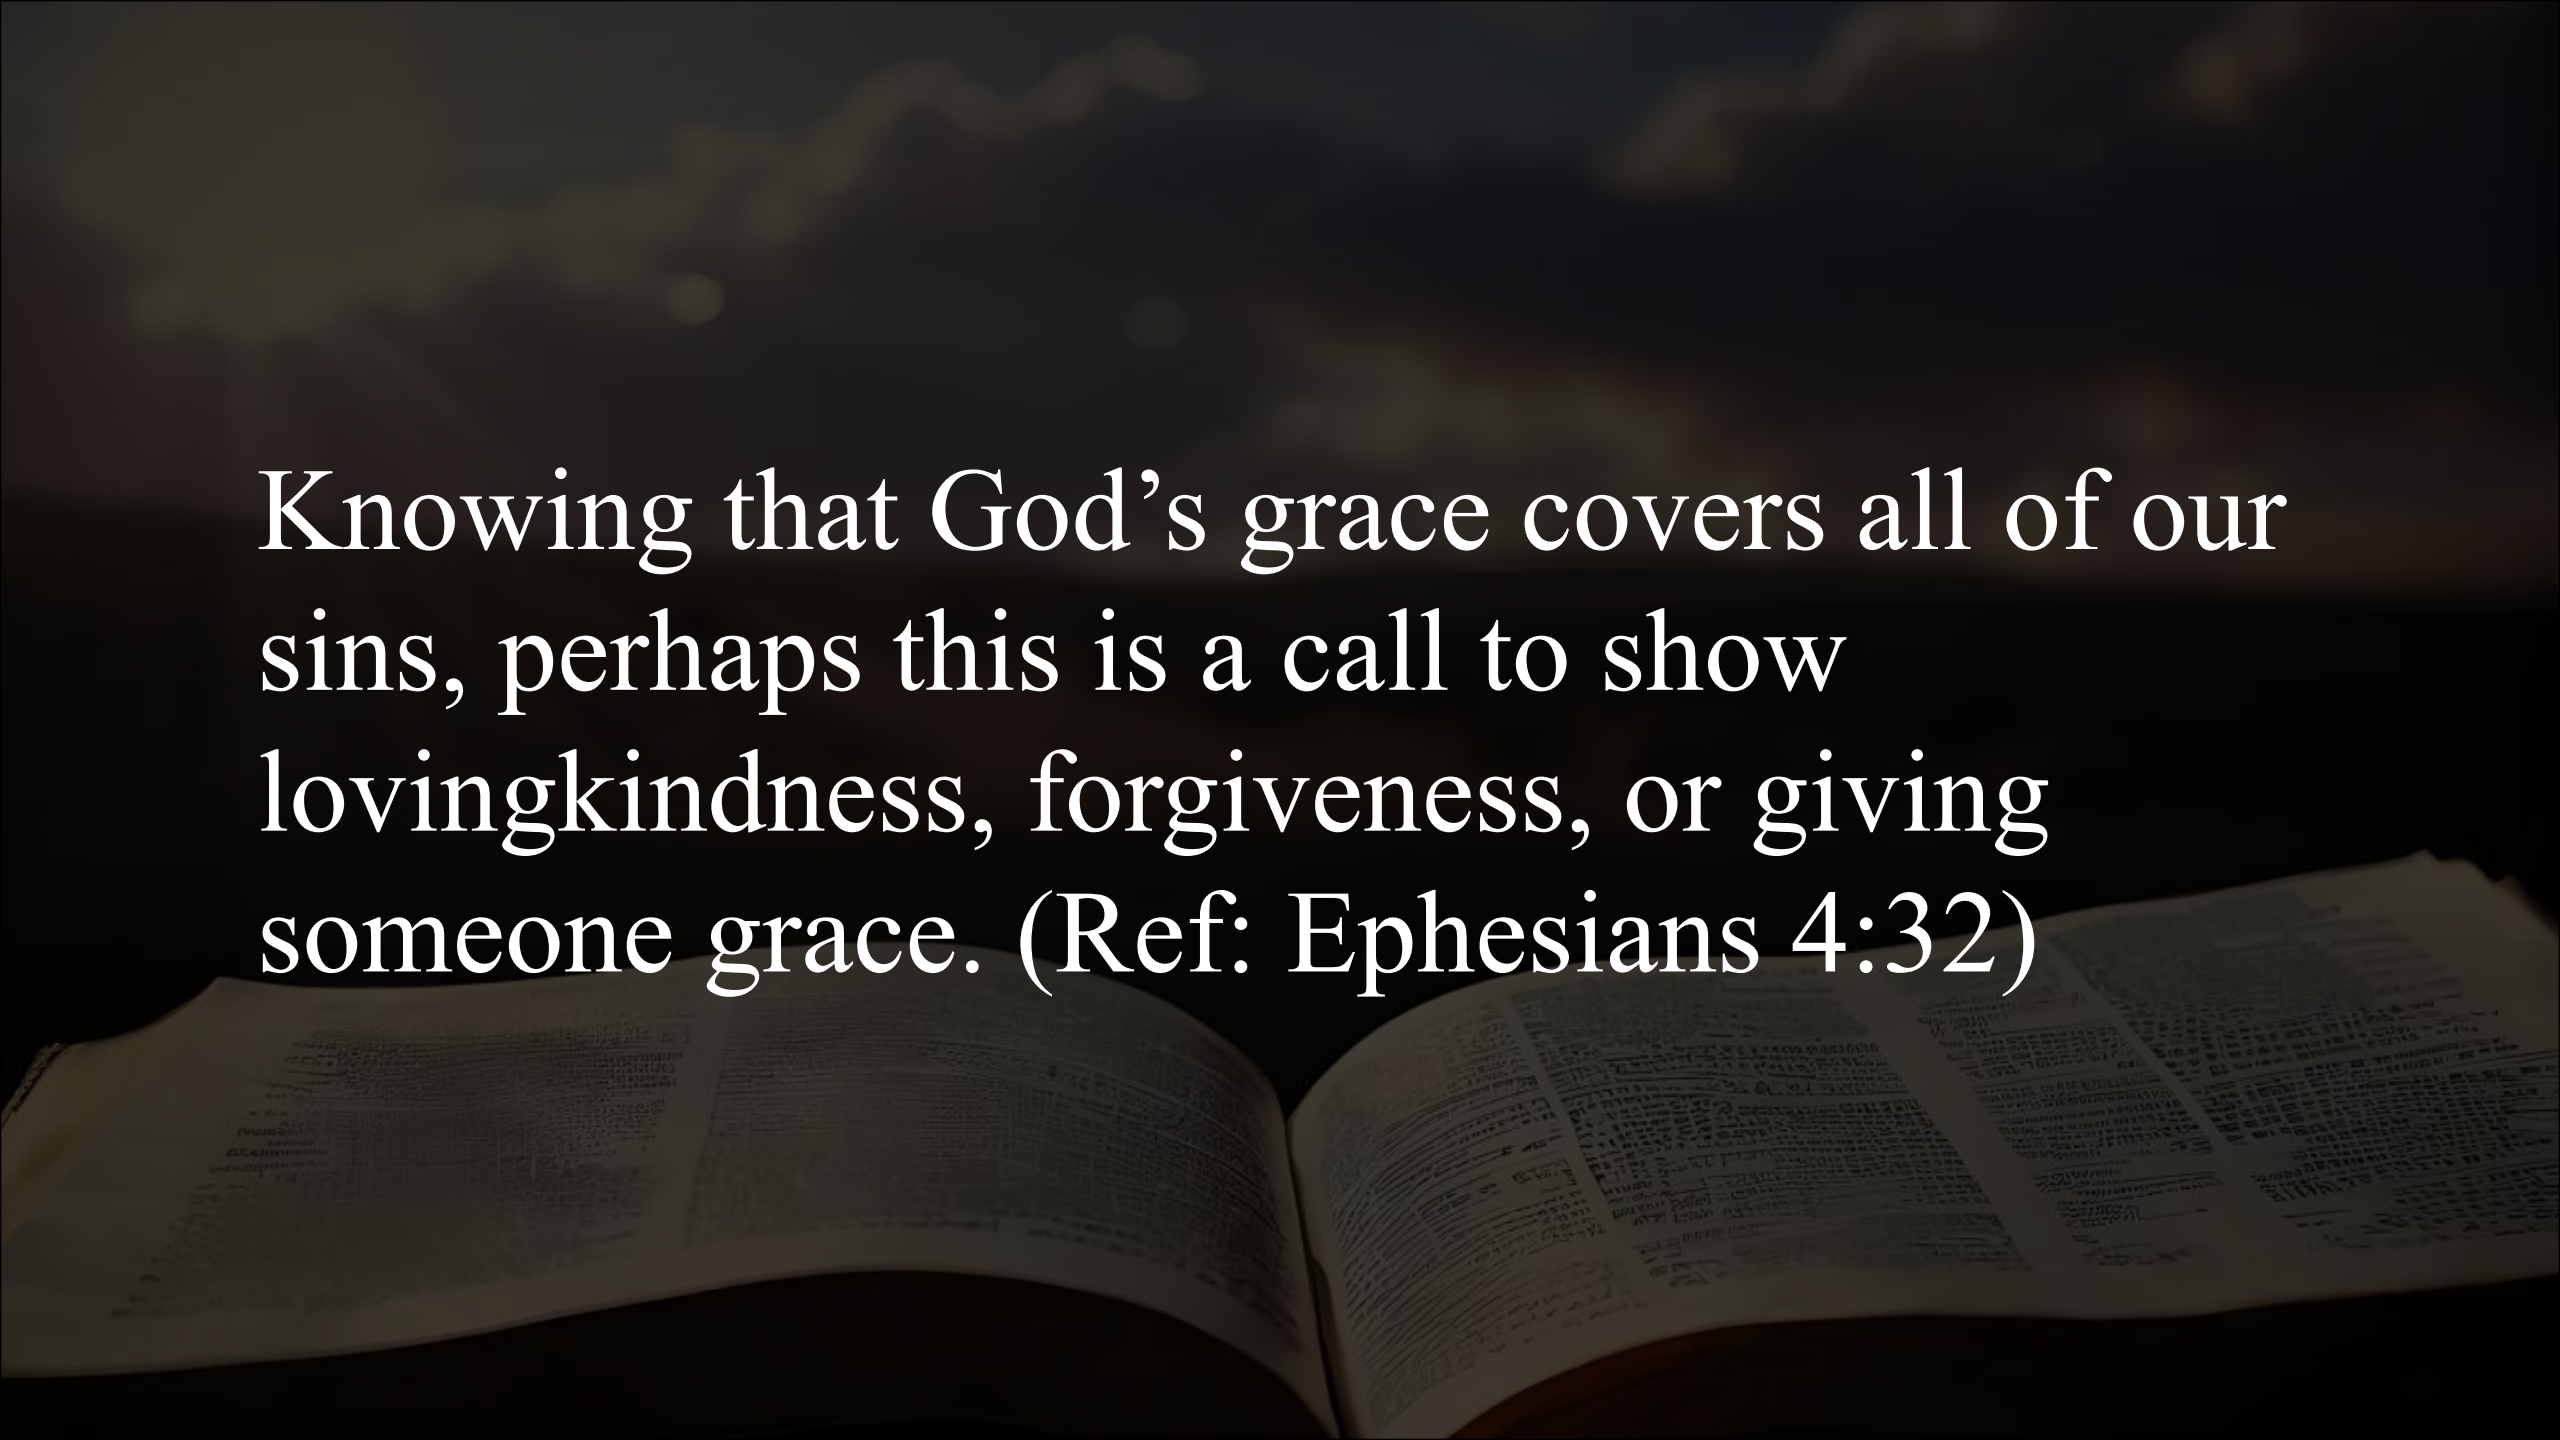

which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight

Question:

Have you experienced God's lavish (abundant) grace in your life?

Knowing that God's grace covers all of our sins, perhaps this is a call to show lovingkindness, forgiveness, or giving someone grace. (Ref: Ephesians 4:32)

An open book is shown in a dark, low-key lighting. The pages are filled with text, but it is mostly illegible due to the darkness and focus on the overlaid text. The book is open, showing two pages. The text is overlaid in a white, serif font.

Ephesians 1:9

making known to us the mystery of his will,
according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ

An open Bible is shown from a top-down perspective, lying flat. The pages are filled with text, likely a translation of the Bible. The text is in a serif font and is arranged in columns. The background is dark, and the Bible is the central focus. The text overlaid on the Bible is in a large, white, serif font. The text is centered and reads: "Ephesians 1:10 as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth." The text is overlaid on the left page of the Bible.

Ephesians 1:10

as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

Question:

How is God's restorative plan working in your life?
