The Three Servants

Three Talents

One Talent

Lessons from Matthew 25:14-30

What can we learn (interpret) from these verses?

1. Stewardship Reflects Preparation and Readiness

God gives each of us everything and calls us to faithfully steward in readiness for Christ.

Reference: Matthew 25:14-15, 1 Peter 4:10-11, Ephesians 2:10

2. Faith Over Fear

Faith leads to bold action. Fear can cause stagnation. God is with us!

Reference: Matthew 25:16-18, 2 Timothy 1:7, Hebrews 11:6

3. Reward for Faithfulness in Christ

Living faithfully in Christ brings peace.
Be an active believer. You will be told in the end “Well done, good and faithful servant.”

Reference: Matthew 25:19-23, Romans 14:17

4. The Consequences of Inaction

Neglecting our responsibilities to God reveals a lack of transformation.

Don't miss the opportunity to bear fruit.

Reference: Matthew 25:24-30, James 2:17

Application from Matthew 25:14-30

How can I apply / live out these verses?

1. Steward All That God Has Given to You

Reflect on the time, talent, and treasure that God has given to you. Use them wisely for the glory of God.

Reference: 2 Corinthians 9:6-8

2. Live in Faith, Not Fear

Replace fear with trust in God's provision and step boldly into His calling for your life.

Reference: Isaiah 41:10

3. Be a Peacemaker in Your Community

Let the peace of Christ flow through you in your words and actions.

Reference: Matthew 5:9

4. Multiply God's Peace

Peace grows when shared. Be intentional to share the peace of Christ with others.

Reference: Galatians 6:9-10
