Thy Will Be Done: 42-Week Reading Plan

As we begin our journey through the Book of Revelation, we approach this book with a sense of humility towards God, unity among one another, and a willingness to follow where He guides us. Our goal is to read (observe), hear (understand/learn/grow), and keep (apply and live out) what God has revealed to us. (Revelation 1:3 and 22:7).

It is in times such as these, the rise of political division, hatred among Christians, technological advances, cultural changes, and other considerations, that we seek God and His Word to help us personally and collectively.

May you search the scriptures, find the context, connections, and may you grow in your faith and be moved to do good in the name of Christ.

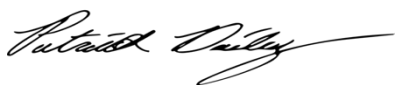

Whether you are premillennial, amillennial, postmillennial, or something not listed, whether you believe in the rapture or not, and regardless of your denomination, all are welcome into this study.

Let us seek God together and look towards the victory in Jesus, the hope in Him, as we await the New Heaven and the New Earth, to reign with him forever.

No one knows the day or hour when Christ will return. Our goal is to seek God, His Word, and His divine timing. (Matthew 24:36 and Acts 1:7).

I am honored to journey through Revelation with you. Whether in person or online, near or far, present or future, may God bless you on this journey.

In Christ,
