

SACRED JOURNEY: FROM DEATH TO LIFE

The New Covenant and Sacrificial Love: Jeremiah 31:31-34

A dark, atmospheric illustration of a stable at night. The scene is dimly lit, with a large, pale moon in the upper left and several bright stars in the dark sky. The stable is a simple wooden structure with a thatched roof. A white horse stands near the entrance, and several sheep are gathered around it. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative.

What does the New Covenant mean to you?

A dark, atmospheric landscape painting. The scene features rolling hills in shades of deep blue and green, with a winding path or stream visible in the lower left. On the right side, a large, dark tree stands prominently on a hillside. The overall mood is somber and reflective, with a dark sky and muted colors.

Can you think of a time when someone sacrificed for you?

FAULT IN THE FIRST COVENANT

ROMANS
8:3

Hebrews 8:7

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion to look for a second.

Romans 8:3

For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh,

A man with glasses, wearing a light-colored shirt and blue jeans, is sitting on the ground in a natural setting, reading a book. The background consists of green foliage and trees. The image is dimly lit, with a dark overlay that makes the white text stand out.

How does knowing that God had a plan for salvation for all effect your understanding of Christ?

The New Covenant makes the old obsolete

2 Corinthians
5:17

Hebrews 8:13

In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

What old things have passed away in your former life and what new things have happened in your life?
