

THE VINEYARD'S CALL:

MATTHEW 21:28-32

PRAYER

Understanding the Scene:

The Parable of Two Sons

Observation: What is happening?

- The Father invites both sons to work in His vineyard – v28
- One refuses but changes his mind – v29
- The other agrees but never goes – v30
- Outcasts who repent will enter the Kingdom before the self-righteous – v31–32

Interpretation: What can we learn from this?

- Conviction Invites Us to Respond
- Let Your Words and Actions Agree
- Response Matters More Than Resistance

Application: What can I do? How do I live this out?

- Examine Your Heart: Words and Deeds
- Respond to the Vineyard's Call to Christ
- Proclaim the Gospel to the Soft and the Hardened

PRAYER

A painting of a landscape. In the foreground, there are rolling yellowish-brown hills with some dark, spiky plants. To the left, there are green bushes. In the middle ground, a deep blue lake stretches across the scene. In the background, there are dark, jagged mountains under a sky with large, white, billowing clouds. The overall style is painterly with visible brushstrokes.
