The New Covenant and Sacrificial Love: Jeremiah 31:31-34 and other verses

Questions for Reflection:

What does the New Covenant mean to you?

Can you think of a time when someone sacrificed for you?

How does knowing that God had a plan for salvation for all effect your understanding of Christ?

What old things have passed away in your former life and what new things have happened in your life?

The story of Maximilian Kolbe and Franciszek Gajowniczek

Maximilian Kolbe

In 1941, a man by the name of by the name of Maximilian Kolbe offered his life in place of a stranger.

A prisoner escaped the Auschwitz concentration camp in World War II and because of this incident, the Germans decided that 10 people were to be starved to death as punishment.

Franciszek Gajowniczek

Franciszek, the stranger, was chosen among the 10.

Franciszek, had a wife and children, and Maximilian offered his life in place of the stranger.

Maximilian died 14 days later. Franciszek survived Auschwitz and was able to return to his wife. Sadly, his sons did not survive.

Franciszek spent the rest of his life to promoting the story of the sacrifice that Maximilian made. He did this to repay a debt. He lived until 93 years old.
