1. When you think about Paul, do you see him as a strategic ministry mastermind? Why is it important to understand that Paul was orchestrating and assigning people to a wide range of assignments, projects, and task?
2. Why is it important for current leaders in various ministries today to have a Pauline mindset for discipleship ministry, training and equipping the next generation of leaders?
3. When we compare the Pauline style of preparing young men for ministry to what is done today, what are the major differences? Is there anything we should learn from the Pauline examples?
4. What did Paul do when a potential faction arose in Corinth between those who were devoted to Apollos, while others stated they were disciples of Paul? What was Paul’s response, and how does this apply to us today? (See Acts 18: 24 – 19:1)
5. Who are the ministry multipliers in the passage of Titus 3: 12-15? Why is it critical to recognize the importance of “Ministry multipliers?”
6. What are the three biggest takeaways for you from this passage? How can you implement what you have learned?
