[Jesus] gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own,

(Titus 2:14)

[Jesus] gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good.

(Titus 2:14)

For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people. It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age

(Titus 2:11–12)

Do good in the public square

Remind the people to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready to do whatever is good

(Titus 3:1)

“The proper function of a government is to make it easy for the people to do good, and difficult for them to do evil.”

Daniel Webster

to slander no one, to be peaceable and considerate, and always to be gentle toward everyone.

(Titus 3:2)

“At some thoughts one stands perplexed, especially at the sight of men's sin, and wonders whether one should use force or humble love. Always decide to use humble love. If you resolve on that once for all, you may subdue the whole world. Loving humility is marvellously strong, the strongest of all things, and there is nothing else like it.”

Fyodor Dostoevsky

to slander no one, to be peaceable and considerate, and always to be gentle toward everyone.

(Titus 3:2)
