

The Person of Christ

June 14, 2026

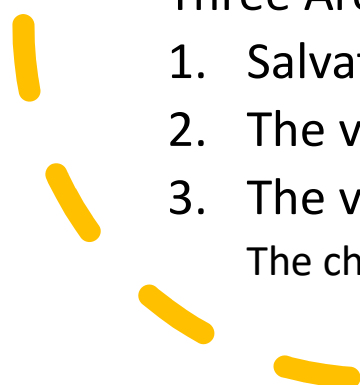

The Person of Christ

- The Virgin Birth

- Matt. 1:18
- Matt. 1:20
- Luke 1:35

Three Areas:

1. Salvation must ultimately come from the Lord. (Galatians 4:4-5)
2. The virgin birth made possible the uniting of full deity and full humanity.
3. The virgin birth makes possible Christ's true humanity without inherited sin.
The child was to be called "holy"

The Person of Christ

- Fully man and fully God in one person.
 - A contradiction
 - Incoherent
 - A paradox
 - Unintelligible

- Jesus had a Human body: affirms a real physical embodiment
- Jesus had a Human mind: affirms genuine human cognition/learning
- Jesus had a Human Soul and Human Emotions: affirms an inner life

The Person of Christ

- What emotions did Jesus experience during his life?
- People near Jesus saw Him only as a Man.
- Why did Jesus have to be fully human?

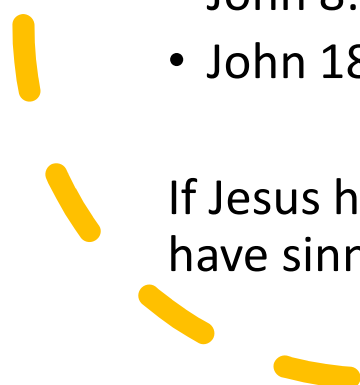

The Person of Christ

- Sinlessness
 - Luke 2:40
 - Luke 4:13
 - John 8:46
 - John 8:12
 - John 8:29
 - John 18:38

If Jesus human nature had existed by itself, there is a possibility that Jesus could have sinned, just as Adam and Eve human natures were able to sin.

The Person of Christ

- Adam and Eve had fellowship with God and abundance of life in the garden and still chose to sin. Because he was fully God, Jesus could not have sinned.
- Jesus in the wilderness had no food to the point of death, but he was fully divine as well as fully human. His divine nature conquered the temptations that Satan put on him.

The Person of Christ

- Why was it necessary for Jesus to be fully divine?
- How do we see Jesus displaying divine attributes?
- Define Incarnation.

The Person of Christ

- How does knowing that Jesus obeyed God fully as a man help you when you are tempted by sin?
- What does it say about God's love that he would come to earth and live and die as a man for you?
- How would your understanding what God did change how you go about your days?

The Person of Christ unites divine sovereignty with human vulnerability,
embodying the perfect
intersection of God and man.

The Person of Christ embodies both divine omnipotence and human vulnerability, essential for salvation and redemption.
