

Who do you fear? (Luke 12:1-12)

Fear is a factor

How do we sort out which fear is good/bad? And how do we face our “bad” fears?

Luke 12: Jesus is going to speak about our fears and to our fears.

⇒ Today (12:1-12), put our fears in the right place

1. A fear we often overlook (v.1-3)

Fear becoming hypocrites!

Like yeast

Fear this, because....

Why do we do it, then?

If God is beginning to convict your heart today

2. A fear we might misplace (v.4-7)

Human beings can be scary

Final Boss

Hell

Is it really right and proper for Christians to fear God?

Jeremiah 32:38-41; Proverbs 14:26-27

The most striking thing about Our Lord is the union of great ferocity with extreme tenderness...This is the appearance in Human form of the God who made the Tiger and the Lamb, the avalanche and the rose. He'll frighten and puzzle you: but the real Christ can be loved and admired as the doll can't. – C.S Lewis

The one with such authority is... (v.6-7)

3. A fear that is godly (v.8-12)

What it boils down to so care first and foremost what the Son of Man thinks!
