

The Great Exchange (Luke 22:63-23:25)

Luke's aim in today's passage:

Which is linked to why Luke bothered to write Luke
(1:4) – to give “certainty of the things you have been taught”

1. Be clear on Jesus' identity

The guards (v.63-65)

Blasphemous

The council (v.66-71)

No different from the soldiers

The credentials of Jesus (v.69, rf. Dan.7:13-14, Psalm 110:1)

The absurdity of it all

You can't keep the truth about Jesus buried!

2. Be convinced of Jesus' innocence

Before Pilate

Before Herod

The conclusion

Over and over and over again...

Is Jesus just the unfortunate victim of a power play?

3. Be confident in Jesus' intention

Echoes of Isaiah 53 everywhere

What is God's plan?

To be the _____ one _____ of the _____

Barabbas & Pilate & Herod & the whole crowd

That's how credible our Lord is

↪ so doubt your doubts
