

Shrewd investments (Luke 16:1-18)

How can I truly be wise with the money I have?

Jesus answers via a (difficult) parable

The headline answer:

1. Steward what we have shrewdly (v1-9)

The manager

What can he do?

What is he up to?

A masterstroke!

Can we learn something from him?

The wisdom Jesus wants to impart to us

What does that look like, exactly? – v9

Money matters – unspiritual?

Being purposeful & creative

- 2 opposite errors

2. ...knowing that it pays to be trustworthy (v10-12)

The basic principle

See your use of money as...

3. ...and knowing it doesn't pay to have split loyalties (v13-18)

v13

we're the exception?

But...Pharisees

In the end, it doesn't pay anyway

† If my only aim for the money I have is to follow what Jesus asks me to do today, how will my use of money change?
